Your Name (like anyone gives a damn)

Your Sponsor (the person who thought you deserved this)

This is not in RED, because lowly PBC's are not allowed to possess anything of that sacred color.

PBC Handbook

An Introduction to E Clampus Vitus®

Congratulations on your decision to seek admittance into the Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus. Prior to being awarded your entry-level title of "Poor Blind Candidate," or "PBC," there are a few things to cover. If after reading the following you choose to proceed, you are agreeing to act as expected and subject yourself to the authority of the Hangman.

What is a PBC in for?

A PBC will be directed by the Hangman (or his appointee) to performing simple chores, assisting in the preparation of meals, entertaining the Redshirts, and possibly light construction of historical interest. During these activities a PBC will be taunted, vilified, humiliated, cursed, and insulted. However, a PBC will not be physically harmed (at least not seriously). A PBC must remain sober throughout the entire day of initiation, NO EXCEPTIONS!

What is expected of a PBC and his Sponsor?

If you choose to proceed, both are expected to:

1. At least 21 years old AND sober at all times!!!
2. Keep the Hangman informed to ensure the safety of our PBC's:
 - o Does your PBC have a physical or mental limitation?
 - o Has a PBC reached his physical or mental limit during the day's events?
 - o Are GC rules for PBC initiations being violated?
3. Learn and accept the structure, rules, and traditions of ECV. (PBC Rules are presented later in this pamphlet) For example, be prepared to honor the following traditions during your initiation:
 - o PBC's DO NOT wear or touch the color RED, this is reserved for Clampers ONLY!
 - o A PBC is expected to provide a token bribe to the Greybeard council when called for interrogation. Hint: the current Humbug prefers a good Irish whiskey.
 - o Tell at least one good joke. (jokes and puns will earn extra credit)
4. Follow the Hangman's instructions over those of anyone else, no matter their title or position.
5. If a PBC decides ECV may not be so great after all, let the hangman know IMMEDIATELY.
The PBC will be allowed to exit the initiation and return to his camp with his Sponsor. If after a period of reflection, the PBC decides to not follow through with the initiation, the man is expected to pack-up and leave camp along with his sponsor.
6. Enjoy your experience and have fun.

What do you get out of all this abuse?

A new and enlightening experience that you shall not soon forget.

You will be awarded the title of Officer of Equal Indignity, and be fully aware of the importance and substance of ECV. You will be ready to instruct future PBC's who may seek admittance into the Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus. You may even brag about this day to the future PBC's suckers whom you recruit to ECV.

Remember your behavior and actions reflect on your Sponsor -- act accordingly.

PBC Handbook

A Letter from the Humbug

No matter what you do in life, how important you think you are, what kind of car, truck, motorcycle, or SUV you drive; TODAY YOU ARE A LOWLY PBC (Poor Blind Candidate). This means you shall be considered to be lower than snake turds, one level below a maggot. However, all is not without the possibility of redemption, should you successfully complete your initiation and become a fully vested member of one of the world's oldest fraternal organizations, the Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus.

You WILL arrive at the Clampout on Friday and will check in with our "Hangman". That evening you will get to know your prospective Brothers. PBC's ARE NOT ALLOWED TO WEAR ANYTHING RED IN COLOR, OR TO TOUCH ANYTHING RED, UNTIL THEY HAVE BEEN DEEMED WORTHY AND HAVE PASSED THE RIGORS OF INITIATION --- BELIEVE ME, WE WILL CHECK! When I was a PBC, I made the mistake of wearing a pair of work gloves with two little red plastic balls dangling from the glove-adjustment straps. You can imagine my worried thoughts when a Redshirt/Clamper came to me and said, "Sorry PBC, but I've got to cut your balls off!" On Saturday, you will be taunted, vilified, humiliated, embarrassed, worked, instructed, and insulted --- BUT YOU WILL NOT BE PHYSICALLY HARMED! Later on, after you become a Redshirt and offer some other unsuspecting soul the opportunity to follow you in ECV'dom, you can brag and even make up stories about how rough you had it when you were a lowly PBC! Even as a new brother, YOU STILL MUST HELP WITH PBC DUTIES ALL WEEKEND!

Remember, we are all here to have fun, but today, that will be AT YOUR EXPENSE. If you can't take personal degradation and embarrassment ---- LEAVE NOW! I'm serious. We don't want you to embarrass yourself and your sponsor by us having to physically eject you from our grounds, and oh yeah, WITHOUT ANY REFUNDS.

Every Clamper, including United States Presidents, Governors, Supreme Court Justices, Judges, Senators, Congressmen, Doctors, Lawyers (boo (!) hiss (!)), Teachers, Professors, Organ-grinders, Actors, Clergymen and other Church officials have all survived our initiations. They've all done it. No man (with certain exceptions) can become a brother without undergoing AND PASSING the ritual. In the end, you'll brag about how tough it was, but that it was worth every second.

Others have chosen to disregard these simple rules --- to their great sorrow. Remember them and heed them during the day:

- You're gonna' be made to do labor.
- You're gonna' be made to wear funny clothing or "doodads."
- You'll sing silly songs and recite prose.
- YOU WILL DO WHATEVER THE HANGMAN COMMANDS YOU TO DO.
- YOU MUST BE SOBER FOR THE INITIATION!

You paid good money for this --- SO ENJOY IT ---- WE CERTAINLY WILL!

A Short History of Peter Lebeck Chapter #1866 of E Clampus Vitus

In the beginning, California had only two chapters of E Clampus Vitus. There was Yerba Buena #1 Chapter in San Francisco for Northern California. Platrix Chapter #2 had the southern region as its protectorate. But, that area was too large for the membership to adequately attend meetings and other functions.

About 1957, a group of scholarly, yet jovial, Clampers began to see the historical and logistical sense of creating a separate chapter in Kern County. After several organizational meetings, they decided to do just that.

The Grand Council of E Clampus Vitus the governing board was petitioned to allow the secession from Platrix Chapter and formation of the new chapter. It was originally thought that it should be called the Ft. Tejon Chapter, as that location is of great historical value in Kern County. Other names mentioned were; the "Colonel Thomas Baker Chapter" for the founder of Bakersfield, the "Edward F. Beale Chapter" for the man who brought the news of the California gold strikes to the east, and the "Peter Lebeck Chapter" for the inept bear fighter buried at Ft. Tejon.

Because the least was known about Lebeck, and therefore less controversy was expected, that name was chosen. In 1961, the Board of Proctors of E Clampus Vitus granted a charter to the "Peter Lebeck Chapter, #1866" for the protectorate of Kern County, to be headquartered in Bakersfield. Our Chapter number, 1866, was chosen as the year that Kern County was incorporated in the State of California. The first Noble Grand Humbug president was Ralph Kreiser (deceased).

What is known about Peter Lebeck is that on October 17, 1837 he was killed by an "X bear," and is buried at what is now Ft. Tejon State Park. We think an X bear is a California grizzly, due to the formation of that letter in their fur during the winter months. Also, we think that Mr. Lebeck true name was probably Pierre Levesque, a French trapper and hunter. When his body was exhumed in 1955, they found an 1836 French five-franc gold piece buried with him. But, it's really all speculation.

Our chapter has placed numerous monuments throughout Kern County over the years. They memorialize events and people from various periods in our history including the early days of the 1800's, the Kern's "Oil Rush" period of the early 20th Century, our continuing leadership role in American agriculture, and our place in the futuristic aerospace industry. We usually have two Clampouts (historical excursions) per year, and a Widow's Ball, where we honor our wives for putting up with our foolishness. Our Clampouts are in the desert and the mountains, and everywhere in between. As a Clamper, you are welcome to join us any time.

The Peter Lebeck Chapter was proud to be the host of the Southern Alliance 6-way Clampout in California City in October of 2006. Over 1100 Clampers attended that event from all over the country. We look forward to many more years of preserving history for the citizens of Kern County. And, we will do it in the best Clamper traditions of brotherhood and frivolity.

Please feel free to stop in and find out more about us at our website: <http://www.ecv1866.org>

12. When in doubt, under any circumstance, ASK THE HANGMAN.

PBC Handbook

PBC Etiquette

(Or, Fear and Loathing in a Clampsite, A PBC's Guide to Success)

1. A PBC should always address a Redshirt as “Mr. Redshirt Sir.”
Examples:
"Yes Mr. Redshirt Sir."
"No Mr. Redshirt Sir"
"That is correct, Mr. Redshirt Sir, I am a lowlife PBC, Mr. Redshirt Sir.”
2. A PBC should always take his responsibilities seriously.
3. A PBC should always enjoy his work, rendered Satisfactory!
(Service Redshirts and maintain a cheerful disposition at all times.)
4. A PBC should never offend, anger or in any way irritate a Redshirt or Officer.
5. A PBC should always make sure that a Redshirt is comfortable and is given excellent service. Remember, a warm beer or soda could easily ruin a Redshirts (and thereby the PBC's) day.
6. When fetching a beverage for a Redshirt a PBC should always locate the coldest drink, (usually found at the bottom of the ice chest) and present it to the Redshirt with a cheerful “Here is your drink Mr. Redshirt Sir!”
7. A PBC should never stand upwind from a Redshirt.
8. A PBC should never serve Spam or green eggs to a Redshirt.
9. A PBC should never let his hangover interfere with his work.
10. A PBC should never say or do anything to embarrass his Sponsor.
11. When in doubt, under any circumstances, ASK THE HANGMAN!

30 Odd Questions for Odd PBC's on Serious California History

(Have answers for at least 20 of these questions.)

1. He came to California (don't know whether he had a banjo on his knee or not) to mine for Gold. Fairly successful, then returned to New York. Got married a few years later in Illinois, had two children. Home life wasn't exciting enough, so since the nation was at war, he joined the 116th Reg., Illinois Volunteer Infantry. Fought with distinction in several battles, Vicksburg, Missionary Ridge, was with Sherman in his "march to the sea", and received a severe wound to his right side abdominal region. Was promoted to First Sergeant. Mustered out in 1865 and tried farming in Iowa. Too tame, so he came back to California and began robbing stage coaches! Who was he?
2. In mining, what is a "monitor"?
3. The very first County Seat for newly designated Kern County was established in what Town? And in what year?
4. Why do they sing "Take me out to the ball game" when you are already there?
5. How did Buttonwillow get its name?
6. The highest and the lowest points in the United States are both located in California, within 100 miles of each other. Name them.
7. In early California it was known as a "California Banknote". What was it?
8. Who or what is Kern County named for?
9. How did Bakersfield get its name?
10. Who discovered Peter Lebeck's epitaph?
11. What is a "Long Tom"?
12. Name three local Indian tribes from the Bakersfield area and its surrounding mountains?
13. Who was the last Mexican Governor of California? Where is his home today? Who was his brother?
14. Why is there an expiration date on sour cream?
15. Who was General George Patton's maternal grandfather, and what was that grandfather's role in California history?
16. When was the "last Old West shootout in Bakersfield", and who was the main character?
17. Where did the Donner Party get lost, and what did they end up doing?

PBC Handbook

18. Who was the U.S. Surveyor General for California and Nevada in 1861 about whom President Lincoln quipped, “I understand that he is Master of all he surveys”?
19. What street in downtown Bakersfield is named after Edward F. Beale’s son?
20. Who made the very first discovery of Gold in California?
21. What is a Pelton Wheel?
22. In the 1987 movie “The Running Man”, who was called, “The Butcher of Bakersfield”?
23. Who was the Pro Football Hall-of-Famer and Sportscaster who, when in high school played for the “Drillers” and said in an interview, “When I was a Driller, we hated Taft. I still have such strong feelings about them that I won’t even drive through Taft today”?
24. May 24, 1844 Samuel Morse sent the first message “What hath God Wrought?” by telegraph. Trans-continental telegraph was not completed until 1861. How did the message of the discovery of gold get to Washington, D.C., and who brought it?
25. Who was Alexis Godey, and how did he die?
26. Which early explorer arrived (up near San Francisco) in 1579 and claimed the land for England?
27. Where is the current County Seat for Kern County, and what year did it become the new county seat?
28. Where is Sutter’s Fort located?
29. Who was the majordomo (livestock supervisor) on Rancho El Tejon for almost 60 years, and his house is at Pioneer Village in Bakersfield today?
30. Tell us what you know about “Ye Olde Plate of Brasse” that was found in 1936?

BONUS QUESTIONS:

- Why do they put Braille dots on the keypad of a drive-up ATM?
- Or,
- Why does “slow down” and “slow up” mean the same thing?

The Ballad of Gilligan's Island" Especially written for ECV Poor Blind Candidates by George Wyle & Sherwood Schwartz

Just sit right back and you'll hear a tale,
A tale of a fateful trip,
That started from this tropic port, aboard this tiny ship.

The mate was a mighty sailin' man, the Skipper brave and sure.
Five passengers set sail that day for a three-hour tour.
A three-hour tour!

The weather started getting rough, the tiny ship was tossed.
If not for the courage of the fearless crew, the Minnow would be lost. The Minnow would be lost.

The ship set ground on the shore of this uncharted desert isle
With Gilligan...
The Skipper too...
The Millionaire... and his wife...
The movie star,
The Professor and Mary Ann,
Here on Gilligan's Isle.

Glossary of ECV Terms

“And So Recorded”	The reply of acknowledgement by the Grand Noble Recorder that the Brethren do deem something “Satisfactory!”
Braying Jackass	Together with the miner, it’s the symbol of E Clampus Vitus.
Clamper	A member in good standing (standing or not) of the ancient and honorable order of E Clampus Vitus; a Redshirt; and an ECV “officer of equal indignity”: an X-PBC.
Clampout	Specifically, an overnight gathering of Clampers during which PBCs are initiated and a monument is often dedicated. Also known as a "Doin’s.” Compare “DOIN’S.”
Credo Quia Absurdum	The order's motto, to wit “I believe because it is absurd.”
Doin’s	A Clamper function of any duration, whether for a specific purpose or an unspecific purpose, though often for the purpose of initiating PBCs.
E Clampus Vitus	“Either an historical drinking society, or a drinking, historical society, take your pick”- John Severino, GM, KABC-TV
E Clampus Vitus, Redivivus	The present-day incarnation of Clamperdom. The term “Redivivus” derives from the Latin prefix red-, re-, "again" + vivus, "alive." As in, "Building anew from old wood."
ECV Gazette	Website with all things Clamper. http://www.ecvgazette.com
Erect, Erection	Verb or noun referring to the construction of a concrete or stone monument affixed with an historical plaque. As in, “Peter Lebeck is having an erection!”
Gold Dust Receiver	An ECV officer whose primary function is that of chapter treasurer.
Grand Council	Composed of all current and former Noble Grand Humbugs of all chapters in ECV. It meets the weekend before Memorial Day in Sonora, California. The Grand Council ratifies the decisions of the “Proctors” or Board of Directors of the mother organization, E Clampus Vitus, Inc.
Grand Noble Recorder	An ECV officer whose primary function is that of chapter secretary. (No, he doesn't wear a dress... normally...or make coffee when he does.)
Greybeard	A current or former Noble Grand Humbug: one of the "elders" of the chapter. A former Humbug is also known as an “XNGH.”
Hall Of Comparative Ovations	Any place where two or more clampers congregate.
Hangman	The person to whom the PBCs are entrusted and who is responsible for their initiation into the chapter; the ECV officer who, along with his agents or “Vigilantes,” has complete authority over the PBCs.

PBC Handbook

Hewgag	A long tin horn which is sounded to gather Redshirts to the Doin's and to alert them that a PBC is about to enter the Hall of Comparative Ovations.
Humbug	Short for Noble Grand Humbug or "NGH;" the presiding officer of the chapter and the HMF in charge of the clampout. The chapter president.
Peter's Procs	Newsletter of the Peter Lebeck chapter #1866 of E Clampus Vitus.
Plaquing	The erection of a commemorative plaque, with or without a monument base. Also, an essential aspect of Clamping, as in, "If you're not plaquing, you're not Clamping."
Poor Blind Candidate	The lowest form of life, which, if it is lucky, may one day attain a place in Clamperdom.
Proctor	An officer of the Grand Council of the Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus. These fifteen XNGH's act as the executive board of the Grand Council, and are the Board of Directors of the Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus, Inc.
Redshirt	A Clamper; one who is to be treated as a V.I.P. by all PBCs.
Saint Vitus	The Patron Saint of E Clampus Vitus and that of idiots, actors and epileptics
"Satisfactory"	A shouted reply of approval by Clampers to the query, "What sayeth the Brethren?"
Serious Shit	An important item of particular interest to all Clampers, but most especially to a PBC; something a PBC had better know and pay attention to.
Slippery Gulch	The Humbug's libation station; the original slippery gulch saloon was located in Murphy's, California.
Sublime	Short for Sublime Noble Grand Humbug (SGNH): The presiding officer of the Grand Council of ECV.
Vice-Noble Grand Humbug	A chapter officer whose primary function is that of vice-president.
Vigilantes	Some Chapters use this title for assistants to the Hangman in charge of the PBCs. In PXL Vigilantes are the redshirts in the white lab coats who protect the PBC's while running them through the challenges of the day.
Wall Of Comparative Ovations	A wall located in Murphy's, California which holds the likenesses and histories of the namesakes of all chapters of ECV; located on the exterior of the Thompson building it is the un-official shrine of Clamperdom.
"What Sayeth The Brethren?"	A query, given to ECV brethren, asking for approval of a particular item.
Widow	A Clamper's wife, girlfriend or both; any member of the fair sex who is comforted by a Clamper.
X	The most wished for letter in the whole clamper alphabet.
