

PETER'S PROCS

A SEMI-OCCASIONAL PUBLICATION
OF PETER LEBECK CHAPTER 1866

BY TIMBO GILLESPIE, XXXNGH — PROCTOLOGIST IN CHIEF

COME ONE, COME ALL!!
CLAMPERS, WIDDERS, KIDDERS, AND CLAMPERS-TO-BE!!!

Our newly minted Humbug, Jim Bailey, he of the steely gaze and relative sterling character (your relatives not mine) requests the presence of the Brethren, Sistren, and all them in-betweens to join him for a day of Plaquing and Clamper Camaraderie.

On Saturday, February 28th 6020, we will actually have two Erections. The first will be at the West Kern Oil Museum, located at 1168 Wood Street, Taft, CA 93268. Monument #1 is set at the museum entrance and will be unveiled at 1:00 – that's daylight, not moonlight. We should then have time to explore the museum before heading to Plaquing #2 at Ethel's Old Corral Café, 4310 Alfred Harrell Highway, Bakersfield, CA 93308. That will take place at 4:30, so you'll want to leave the museum by 3:15 to make sure you get there on time.

There's no cafeteria at the museum so you'll want to grab a bite before we get started. Then following dedication #1, join the rest of us for dinner at the Corral. There's no charge to attend this event but dinner is pay as you go. There will be bar service and some sort of live entertainment other than Mikee, Jaime, and Tim singing soprano.

Inherent in being a Clamper is adopting the motto "If you ain't Plaquing, you ain't Clampin'." Our Humbug has taken excellent steps here to make sure all will enjoy his Erections, not just the Redshirts at our Clampouts. We would very much love to see you dressed in you Clamper Regalia helping us help the public understand the history of where they live. What more could a redshirt ask for?? Hope to see you there!!!

To top it all off, the ever considerate Mr. Bailey has arranged for the special rate of $79 per night at the Homewood Suites, 1505 Mill Rock Way, Bakersfield, the same great place that put up with us for our 2015 Widder's Ball. So after reveling at the Old Corral, you can kick back in comfort and continue your fun, instead of having to close one eye and drive home. Call the hotel at (661) 664-0400, during business hours and ask for Stacy or Nicole to get the red speckled rate. If you should decide to drive home, please ensure that a Brother or Widder of sobriety is holding the reins of your rig.

For directions to the West Kern Oil Museum hold down the Ctrl Key then click on the link below. When Google Maps comes up insert your address in the "+" field, drag the "+" to the top of the stack and you'll have complete directions from your home.

April 17-18-19, 2015

Fort Tejon State Historical Park Campgrounds

The Kern County chapter or ECV, Peter Lebeck, Chapter 1866, invites you to join us in returning to the Fort for another fine Spring Doins featuring vittles ala Timbo, and a damn fine bar to tell tall-tales over.

Rules for the bout:

- Grand Council rules will be enforced all weekend.
- The usual no-no's apply (Women, long-knives, firearms, etc.)
- We are a "friendly-dog" friendly chapter, but each owner responsible for his K-9.

Just a reminder, the Big & Little Slippery are BYO. Our tradition is Redshirts share and donate Big Slippery at the PXL bar.
